Hi Dan,

I'm so glad TFN allowed our paths to cross. You were SO fun to work with and I'll miss seeing your sunshiney face very much. I hope your well-deserved retirement brings you loads of happiness, rest, cute men, and maybe a beautiful beach somewhere, too.

Your work wife #2
Kelly O'Halloran

Dan,

What an amazing ride! I have so many incredible memories working with you and so much appreciated you being part of my brain trust for 16 years at TFN. The organization will miss you, as I certainly already do. There are wonderful days ahead as a consultant -- more free time? new challenges, and perhaps less controversy! It is an honor to call you my friend.

Kathy

Dan, congratulations on your retirement! Thank you so much for all that you have done during your time at TFN. You will be missed.

Erica Wollman

Congratulations Dan!! I am excited for you as you enter this new chapter in life. We did not have the pleasure of working together too long but I will miss the bond we had over our love for the same rodents. I will certainly miss you on all our future zooms. I wish you lots of adventure, fun, laughs, and relaxation always.

Jasmine Tellez

Dan – congratulations on your retirement, and thank you for making Texas a better place. Your passion for TFN's mission, eloquence, professionalism, and sense of humor helped shape my early career and I will be forever grateful.

Cheers to you! Becky Pastner

Dan,
Congratulations for all the years of wonderful service to TFN and everyday Texans for whom you so passionately advocated! I wish you continued blessings as you discover all the beauty in this next chapter of life.

Sonja

Congrats, Dan! I'm grateful to have had the opportunity to work with you and get to know you. Our state owes you a debt of gratitude for all you have contributed to the various social movements you've been a part of. Now it's time for you to sit back, relax, and let the spring chickens take it from here. Cheers to the next chapter!

Zoraima

Congrats on a well-deserved retirement. I'm glad I got the chance to work with you.

Dan,

I can hardly believe this day has come! I will miss you immensely, and treasure everything you have done for TFN. Thank you for helping us give the bad guys a whole lot of hell over the years, and for doing it with such wit, passion, and on brand sarcasm. I know I wouldn't be where I am without your support and will forever be grateful to you.

Enjoy the next chapter!

Hi Dan!

Although we've known each other for a brief period of time since the start of my internship, it is clear to me that you are an integral part of TFN and the growth and development of this organization. The impact you have made here and those that have been part of TFN will continue carrying the lessons and vast knowledge you hold. Thank you for all you've done and I hope that life after TFN is just as fruitful. To a new journey!

Dan,

I am eternally grateful for the day I met you and the last 15 1/2 years we've worked together scheming and plotting the takedown of the religious right. Honestly, I cannot imagine TFN without you. You are not only one of my most cherished colleagues, but you are one of my dearest friends whom I love with all my heart. We've been through so much together -- professionally and personally -- and I'm so honored to have traveled this road together. Wishing you all the happiness, health and humor in all your future endeavors. Oh, and lots of rugby players to ogle any time you want.

Rachel

I ❤️ You, Man! LMK

Dear Dan,

The very first thing I'd like you to know is that when I think of you, I'm picturing this you 🖐️

NOT the "Dan Quinn" at the bottom right of this page.

Second, I want to say that you're a pretty cool dude. 😎 In all sincerity, you're extremely kind and thoughtful of those around you. You're very smart, clever, and I look forward to our talks as they're always interesting. Thank you for the great memories at TFN. I wish you the best in your new endeavors and will always look to you for guidance.

Imelda Mejia

MY DARLING DAN – YOU HAVE BEEN THE BEST WORK HUSBAND I COULD HAVE POSSIBLY IMAGINED. I WILL NEVER WORK LOVE AGAIN, LIKE I WORK LOVE YOU... THAT SAID, I'M HAPPY FOR YOUR NEXT LIFE ADVENTURE. YOU ARE SO SWEET, BRILLIANT AND CHARISMATIC WITH THE PERFECT DASH OF SNARK. THE WORLD IS A BETTER PLACE THANKS TO ALL OF YOUR YEARS OF HARD WORK AND DEDICATION... THANK YOU FOR BRIGHTENING MY TIME AT TFN AND I HOPE YOU CHECK IN PERIODICALLY TO SEE HOW MISERABLE WE ALL ARE WITHOUT YOU! SENDING TONS OF LOVE AND BEST WISHES TO A ONE OF A KIND MAN. 🌟

PALMER

Dear Dan,

I wish all of my decisions during my time at TFN had been as brilliant as the one that led to your incredible run. You are a Rock (a snarky sort of rock to be sure!): steady, thoughtful, dedicated, strategic, prolific and kind. Your presence will be sorely missed but the fruits of your labor will be felt for years to come. Oh, the hell you have been part of raising! I count myself lucky to have been in the trenches with you and to call you a friend. Thank you for your service of these many wonderful years.

Congratulations Dan on a job well done, and on your next chapter.

love

Sam

Dan, I will always remember how you welcomed me into the TFN family. I was a complete media neophyte with no idea what to say or how to say it, and you were so, so patient in working with me. You were always so encouraging. I am so thankful for the years of friendship that have sprung from those first experiences. I am so thankful for your kind heart, straight shooting, smarts, positive attitude, and friendliness. Congratulations on your retirement!

Mark Chancey

The Texas Freedom Network has loved all that you've done for the organization. Now it is time for you to go and do all that you love. Congratulations, Dan!

Emma Brockway

Who thought this day would ever come? Get out while you can! Thank you for nearly two decades of mentorship, friendship and support. Enjoy your retirement, if you can keep yourself from getting caught up in the nonsense at a different angle. You've done tremendous work for Texans. Thank you.

Yours,

William O. Pate II

Dan, You have made a difference in so many ways, especially with the school textbooks used by our children.. Wishing you much happiness and health and relaxation as you start the next chapter.

Joni Cohan

Dear Dan,

I went by the office recently and noticed that you cleaned out your desk and even your nameplate is gone. It made me a little bit sad all over again to think that Dan my colleague and Dan my friend won't be in the building each day.

I will forever be grateful that when it came time for TFN to add a second comms person, you gave me a chance. I think we made a good team for many years and I hope that during the majority of that time I made your job at least a tad bit easier.

I wish you all the best and hope you enjoy every second of this next chapter. You've earned it.

José

Dan,

I'm so glad I got to meet and work with you and I wish you all best in retirement! Thank you for all the incredible work you've as well as
all the snarky comments.
Wishing you all the best,
and congratulations!
