Cindy,

It's a very bitter-sweet moment for me. I started in the Reg Office 23 years ago and everywhere I was you were there.

To think of now walking in everyday without you greeting me is going to make the days seem so much longer (insert tears of sadness here)!

I am very happy for you because I know you are going to be enjoying this next chapter of your life, you will have more time to do all the things you want to do. Congrats my friend!

LOVE

Maria Mattacchione

Cindy,

You have always been so warm and kind and hilarious. I am so happy that Humber helped us cross paths. Although it wasn't frequent, I will miss popping by your desk to say hi. For a long time, Humber was a second home and a second family and you are one of the people who helped create that atmosphere and is why I am still here today, trying to continue that tradition.

I plan to give you a giant hug as soon as the opportunity presents itself so get ready.

Cindy, Cin, Pants, Panteleit, My Work Mama!

Even though I knew this day was coming, I still feel so unprepared for it. I can't think of another person who has work so hard for 30 years and dedicated so much of herself to students. I knew the day I was paired with you for training that I had made a friend for life well beyond the workplace. I also had a great excuse if I did anything wrong because I could just say Cindy trained me and it explained everything :)

I am so happy that you finally get to enjoy the retired life. The only comfort I have in not seeing your face when we return is that I know you will still reach out for "IT" support. Relax, rest, enjoy and don't bug

Sherry too much.

Miss you!

Lots of Love,
Tanya Reda

Cindy,

you were one of my first humber friends, and I will always remeber you as the kind hearted, sweet person that always made me laugh. I'm sad to see you off, but I couldn't think of anyone more deserving of a new chapter, filled with a whole lof of little miss charlotte, and not a worry in the world. I wish you the best, and know that you will surely be missed.

All the best,
