Dear Kelly,

I can only only imagine the difficult time that you and Norm will be going through. Please accept my heartflet condolences on your loss.

Josh was highly regarded by his colleagues in Downsview, Ontario as well as internationally for his expertise in microwave remote sensing of snow and Arctic fieldwork. He made significant science contributions to the science program, especially in the science development of the Terrestrial Snow Mass Mission. We miss him greatly.

Waheed Khan

Kelly and family,

My sincerest condolences for your loss of Josh. I hope the many wonderful memories of time shared provide you some comfort in during this incredibly sad time for you and your family.
