Congrats Neil, you are a great example of how this program works and how much our efforts effect other people. I love when you share about your family and how much they mean to you. I'm sure they are so proud of their sober dad and husband.

I'm so happy for you! You are such a gift to JFT, and I love it when you share. You have such a wise, smart, incredibly gentle way of sharing your recovery with us, and when you sign off with "I love you guys," it makes me so happy because I know you mean it with your whole heart and that I'm included! Six years is an amazing accomplishment. Love you.

Congratulations Neil! Now that you got your marbles back at 5 years, you are learning daily how to use them! You really are an important member of JFT with your service, your sharing and your support of all, especially the newcomer. Thank you for that. ❤️

Dear Neil,
Thank you for sharing your sobriety: your wisdom, your humility, your sense of humor, and your experience. In the 2 1/2 years I've been going to JFT, it's been a pleasure to see you grow and change in the program.

*Good for you Neil,
You're always there with your insightful shares and your service to us all here at JFT.
So many of the words you speak fit in with my story, making me think how deeply important my sobriety means to me and to so many others.
My Grateful Appreciation, Larry L*

Congratulations, Neil!!! You do not know this, but you were one of the reasons why I kept coming back to JFT. You made it easier for me to not just blend in but also to slowly become part of the community (emphasis on slowly). I am a better sharer because of you. You helped me understand that I don't need to have the best things to say but just to say the things that felt good to my heart. Thank you for being an amazing role model in this wonderful journey called sobriety! Congratulations on 6!!

Tabi A

Congratulations, Neil! I owe you a debt of gratitude for being such a light and support to me when I arrived and a strong example of continuing to work and practice this program. I appreciate connecting with you and loved hearing you share your experience, strength and hope on your anniversary.

Neil, thank you for your friendship. Because you choose to show up sober today I get to learn and be challenged to continue to grow and be a better version of me. Keep encouraging me to soften my gaze brother!
