I am so proud of each of you, you have worked extremely hard to get to where you are today. Thank you for choosing and trusting us with your college education. I know that this is not how you envisioned the last semester of your college career and, I, too, am sad that I cannot celebrate your accomplishments in person, I hope you are able to take a moment and appreciate the hard work you have put in. I know you will each do well in your chosen path, please stay in touch!
