Winston was a needed ray of sunshine at ARMS as the kids returned to school last year. He continued to be a connective tissue, connecting police depts, schools, towns, and people. We know that he was so much more than just a working-dog. He was a member of the family. Thanks for sharing him with us all.

Thank you for bringing Winston to our community when he was most needed. Bill Laramee and his family took on this venture for the benefit of so many.....from our schools to our police, from our homeless to our Amherst Ambassadors....they ensured Winston was there to add comfort and security at a time when fear and the health and welfare of our community was at its greatest risk., Winston was a gift to so many,,,young and old, business owners and visitors, homeless and home bound,, persons of all ethnicities and backgrounds, he was a true unifier. Thank you Winston. Gone but not forgotten.
