Dear Carol: I'm so happy for you. Thank you for your help and support during my early sobriety. I'm glad we're on this journey together. The first year is hard.
It's harder to start over. I'm so looking forward to the resumption of non-socially distanced meetings so we meet in person. The fact that you got sober in a virtual world and while your son is in Afghanistan is a testament to your resilience. Constant vigilance!
James

*So happy for you! You showed up. You shared, even when you didn't really want to. You have grace and dignity. So grateful to be on this wonderful journey with you my friend! xoxoxo

Carol!

What a year it's been. I marvel not only at the time of year and time of life you chose to get sober, but how you did so. From my vantage point you got sober with grace, honesty and dignity. You're an inspiration. Your smiles got bigger as did your understanding of what humility is.

How lucky are we all to call you a friend.

Congratulations. Tomorrow is just another day to be grateful to be sober.
