Congratulations to the Class of 2021

#TeamBradfordForever

I am absolutely delighted to see you graduate and I offer my most sincere and warmest congratulations on your success. You have excelled despite all the challenges we have faced over the past year. You are a great credit to the University of Bradford and now I encourage you to use this outstanding education to go forth and make the world a better place. The future for all of us is in your hands and I am truly proud that you are among our graduates. Now you are joining our family of alumni, a family that will be with you throughout your life and career.

Very best wishes and good luck.

Peter Mitchell

Many congratulations to all and well done for surviving through what has been one of the most challenging and exceptional periods for study we have ever seen. Good luck with all you do in the future!

Dave Spicer

Dear all - Well done! To succeed and graduate in such a year is a testament to your resilience, determination and sheer hard work. You justifiably deserve to be very, very proud of your achievements. To our social care students- thank you for bearing with us as we worked hard to support and provide for you the best service we could under the circumstances, and please remain in contact but now as colleagues.

Good luck and best wishes to all though in your future careers,

Robert Strachan

*Best wishes - and I hope that each of you has learned

To all graduates,

Congratulations on getting through such hard times and achieving this, you truly deserve it. Know that this was the easy part of life. The unfortunate, yet truly exciting thing about your life, is that there is no core curriculum. The entire place is an elective. The world is your oyster, shine bright and believe in yourself more than anything. We wish you the best of luck.

Dear Graduates

Congratulations to you all. You have achieved a major milestone in your life under very challenging circumstances. I wish you success in your future endeavours and hope that you will go on to use the knowledge you have gained during your time at University of Bradford to make difference to society and the communities you live in.

You will always be part of #Team Bradford wherever you are, and I look forward to following your progress with great interest.

Prof Vishanth Weerakkody
Dean of Faculty of Management, Law and Social Sciences

Many Congratulations! You will always remember this part of it because we will always be here for you! A look into the past will bring a smile on your face - friends, mischievousness, annoying lecturers, being told off, lunch breaks, fall outs, tantrums, last a few years of teenage wish you all the best! God bless!

Best wishes,
Mahriya

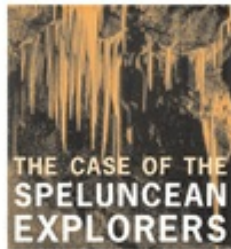

Massive congratulations! Good may do next.

Whether it was the lost bracelet in Parker,

the cannibalistic speluncians in Lon Fuller's work

or the smoking ball in Carlill Smoke Ball;

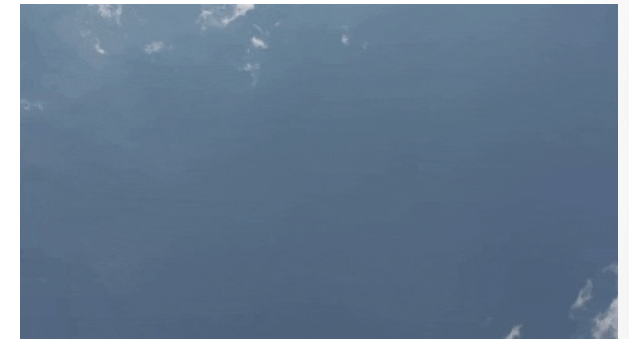

I hope you found an interest in law as you progressed through your degree.
Good luck in your future career.
Dr. Mark Van Hoorebeek
