Thank you Jen for your Friendship and invaluable advice, not only regarding my book
but also my life.
Always in my heart
Suzie. XXXXXXXXXXXX

Dear Jen,

That time you arrived in Florida having just spent considerable time in Mexico. You and Grae were Mexican! Mexican chocolate, Mexican drinks, Mexican Salsa. How we loved it all. Then you could flip seamlessly from summer to winter and zoom off to teach skiing in Vermont. Everyday was an adventure and a joy with you in it.
Alison von Bibra

Forever grateful for knowing you, and learning from you, Jen. You made me a better writer. Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us everyday - I know you'll be there, encouraging me all the way.

MY CHILDHOOD MEMORIES ARE FILLED WITH YOU AND YOUR CHILDREN... I WILL NEVER FORGET YOUR KINDNESS, YOUR SMILE AND YOUR PUMPKIN SOUP. FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS JEN TILL WE MEET AGAIN. REST IN PEACE
YOUR ZONZON

I am so deeply blessed to have always known you and love you as a sister Jen. Our parents friendship, solidified our own. I will treasure the time we spent in Japan, getting to know Grae and learning so much from you. Our Motherling connection will forever hold us close as will of course our life-long love of the snow ... yet another thread in the tapestry of life. I will miss our earthly connections, forever in my heart. Deep peace, darling Jen xx Katie❤️

Jen when we first met you, full length fur coat and snow swept blonde curls, you were overwhelmingly warm and welcoming to us. We thanked our lucky stars that we were so fortunate to have you and Grae as our neighbours. As you were a wordsmith, a few words to describe you through our eyes... always positive, happy and grateful, accomplished, creative, intelligent, inspiring and emotionally intuitive. We only wish we had you in our lives a little longer, you made such a impact to us in such a relatively short time. We will miss you friend x

Jen - We had so much fun when the boys were at Christ Church. Quentin and Raif were great friends - and so were we! You were an inspiration the way you loved your boys and the way you put your energy into carving out a great life. You believed in yourself!

Jen- Your energy for life, strength, kindness and love will not be forgotten. I'll always remember your words of wisdom, Stockmarket insights & delicious food. What you achieved and the examples you set were truly astounding. Will miss the wide smile and big hugs. My heart goes out to Jaad, Grae, Caroline, Sam, Tim and family. Hope they have plenty of snow and books to read wherever you are watching from. Xo Jen's power of attraction is a rare quality. No matter how big the function, finding her in a room was always easy - in the biggest gathering she'd shine and magnetise.

And she's still doing it. Truly a superwoman whose journey we were lucky to be a part of.

A Tribute to Jen

A shining star, a force of nature that deeply influenced our life. A beautiful story teller that inspired us and brought to life the meaning of living life to the fullest. Sharing your love and smile with all those around you. We learned so much from you and are grateful for the time spent with you. Your example, inspiration and love will forever stay with us.

Full of love and life. An amazing woman who always made time for others. You will be deeply missed by so many. Much love.

The creative world has lost one of its shining lights. Jen, your beautiful and generous spirit was an inspiration to me and to many others, all over the world. You touched SO many people. You live on with us, always.

Lisa Clifford

Your energy and zest for life will be sadly missed as will your phenomenal organisational skills - no one was better at bringing together a great group event than you.

The dignity with which you faced your tragic illness and the control that you maintained throughout were truly inspirational.

Rest in peace dear Jen.

Leo and Marg

*Dear Jen,
I have made few close friends late in life but we connected so easily and happily. You were such a special woman: inspiring, loving and colourful with your sparkling smile and eyes. You made me feel valued, cared for and loved.
We are richer and happier for knowing you.
Love Kathy & Graham Gould*

'I only met Jen in person 3 times but I feel I've lost a close friend. She had such enthusiasm for life, with a personality to match. Truly inspiring. She was the first visitor (with friend Judy) to our new West Gippsland "botanic garden". I have vivid memories of that day in the November sunshine, Jen sharing her impressive horticultural knowledge; I could never have imagined it would be her only visit. I feel privileged and honoured to have known her.'

Dear Jen,

You were such an inspiration to people, especially aspiring writers.

I met you this year when I participated in your writing retreat in Terang.

I learnt so much from you. Your words and advice had such an impact on me.

Thank you for everything.

You will be missed and I will always cherish the wonderful memory of experiencing your masterclass. Your writing is beautiful and powerful and I feel very lucky to have met you.

Rest in Peace.

Charlotte Stanhope.

Dear Jen, we still can't quite believe that we won't see you again. Darren and I so appreciated yours and Graeme's warmth and generosity of friendship and will always cherish our memories of skiing, yoga, long chats about career, life, writing and pretty much any topic that cropped up. You had such an energy, determination and positive mindset to life even at its most challenging that it couldn't help but rub off on those around you. Thank you Jen and Rest In Peace. All our love, xoxo
Lyn and Darren

Dearest Jen,

Thank you for your wonderful friendship, support and encouragement over the years, starting with when we first met in Jeddah in 1984.

I am so sad that after all the work you did with me on my book you aren't here to see it published in March 2023. Only 5 months ago, you emailed me saying "Keep me posted as to what's going on. I have left part of my soul in your book too, and would love to continue the journey with you."

You will always hold a special place in my heart and will live on with me when I start working on my next memoirs about Saudi Arabia.

Bizzie Frost

When you are with Jen she has a way of making you feel like you are her best friend. Jen knows more about me and my life than almost anyone else, she always asks questions and is genuinely interested in the response, and she never forgets 'your story'!

Jen has always been a self-motivated, positive person who has lived life and dealt with every challenge with her indomitable attitude, grace and love. Thank you for your friendship, Jen.

Jenny, had the hope of seeing you in Europe. Finally a reunion after all these years.

Now I'm in shock and very, very sad to hear the news.

Rest in peace Jenny I will always remember our time in Beirut

Dear Jen

There's no words to describe what a loss it is that you're not here.
But what beautiful memories, light and inspiration you've left us with.

From the moment you walked into my yoga class, we were friends.
And what a delight having you join our online group. Our group is so saddened to have lost you but you continue to inspire us all through your achievements and zest for life.

I imagine you shining your light somewhere magical now as you continue to shine it upon us and all those who've been privileged to know and love you.

I can't help but smile picturing your beautiful face. Living forever in our hearts dear Jen.

Love

Dear Jen,

I was always so proud and in awe of all you achieved both before I knew you, and after I met you.

Thank you for the love and happiness you brought to Graeme, and the broader Clifford family, and for the inclusion of Raif and Jaad in the Clifford clan.

At this time I remember the dinner you, Raif and I had in Zhong Kong, and the photo I took that evening.

*Two bright lights, and big lives, both much loved,
and always missed.*

My love to Grae, and the broader Clifford / Bokt family.

Jen, you entered the publishing industry with such energy and verve. It was an absolute pleasure working with you, especially our co-presentation at Willimstown and then again at the Byron Writers Festival. I shall be having a drink to you at this year's event. You were and are an inspiration. When you set your mind to something you got it done, and always with a huge amount of humour and style. You will be missed!

Donna ...

What a wonderful life you have forward to seeing you again at t

Dearest Jen, we met just after you had lost your beloved Raif and the Camino beckoned. You wrapped your compassion around me when I lost my own son. And in between, writing and wit, your shining intelligence and perspicacity, your open home and hearth - you were love walking in the world. You'll be so deeply missed. Love to Graeme and your family
Sue Binzer

Jen - you are Beyond Words - a Light who knew Light when it saw it and who offered your own to so many people in so many different ways. I feel blessed to have had my path linked with yours, honoured that you believed in me and gave so much of your time and resources to try and birth writing we both believed in, and were entrusted with. If Fileena makes it into this world, it will be because of you. I am hopeful that our spirits and souls will meet again and know each other, in some form in the the mystery that is the Aliveness.
Mary Pipes

Jen, today I skied Perisher and thought of you- your wisdom, your vision, your drive and motivation, your sense of humour and your delightful left handed was. I miss you like crazy my lovely friend, I always told you I loved you and how glad I am as I always did and will.
Bindi

What a beautiful and inspiring memorial! Much love to Jen's family

It's been years since we've been able to see you in Japan Jen. I'll still be expecting to see your head pop around the corner from the front door next time we're in Drs Village. Just to say hello and check on how everyone is going. We'll have to save a space for you next time we all hibachi and see if we can conjure your spirit with saké and stories. Thanks for the chats about writing and books here in Melbourne at the SLV. Yours was a life well lived and a heart very full.

Darling Jen.

My soul sister, beautiful friend, loyal protector, encourager, mentor. Kind supportive rock. Your natural gift made people feel special and good and loved. I'll always miss you and love you. Your brightness and warm Kind heart shone. 🌟 Irreplaceable. I will always be grateful to have shared precious time with you in this life.. What a brave warrior you were. dear one.

A Motherling. ❤️🌟

Rest peacefully. May we meet again.....

With love always,
