Dear Carrie,

I'm so sorry to hear about sweet Ace. He has been such a big part of the fandom, especially to those of us who've been around since the early days and kind of grew up with you both. I wish none of us had to know the pain of losing a furry best friend. However—once it comes time to say goodbye—we can rest a little easier knowing that as good as they made our lives, we made theirs even better. Saying a little prayer for you and the fam.

Sydney (@sydddddles)

I was so saddened to hear about the passing of Ace. I know firsthand how devastating it is to lose a furbaby. They're family too! I'm thinking about you & your family during this difficult time. I hope these donations in Ace's honor will provide a bright spot in these dark days! I have no doubt he's having a great time & waiting on the other side! All my love!

Hi Carrie,

I'm so sorry to hear of Ace's passing. I asked you about the puppies in a Meet & Greet 2 weeks ago and you mentioned Ace was not doing well and that you hoped he would make it to the end of the residency. While I knew it was coming it was still a shock for me. I have a sweet kitty who is the same age as Ace and I think about her age often. I hope Penny Jean, Zero and your boys can bring you some some comfort and healing. Just know that you provided a loving home for that sweet puppy for 16 years and nothing can take that or your memories away. He loved you!

Hi Carrie,

I'm sorry for your loss. I'll never forget the time I heard you sing The More Boyd I Meet at the Opry in 2008 and you said "the more boys I meet the more I love my Ace!" Your music is playing non stop on my phone this week. Thank you for being one of my inspirations in life.

Love,

Leath Nibley

Carrie I completely remember you and Ace chasing each other on the set of the "Wasted" video. That was my first memory of Ace. I know he meant a lot to you and the fam. I hope this verse eases the loss. "Every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, saying, 'Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the lamb forever.'". So sorry for the loss of your precious fur baby. I once had the pleasure of meeting Ace from afar. Though I don't think that he shared my level of enthusiasm (he was attending to "business"), it was nonetheless a pleasure to see the cuteness in person. So sorry about Ace Carrie. He was such an integral part of your journey and our journey with you, so we feel the loss too. Your advocacy for pet adoption is the reason I decided to adopt a rescue. I was blessed to have Coco as a companion for 11 years. She passed in Dec. 2021. It was heartwrenching but she is in a better place. They love unconditionally! RIP Sweet Ace. Maybe Coco and Ace can have a play date in doggy heaven. His likeness is the face of your CATS Foundation so he will always be remembered for doing good!
