Brian,
Thank you for always supporting our work at the Office of Women's Health. Your positive energy, humor and strategic advice helped us continue our momentum towards success for our work to address IPV, opioid use disorder, and cervical health. I also personally appreciated the support and advice you so genuinely provided to me as an aspiring executive. It means a lot when a person at your level takes the time to mentor others. Thank you and best of luck in your next chapter! 😎

Brian,

Best of luck moving forward. We'll miss the enthusiasm and energy you brought to the job. You'll go down in history as the first person to wear a tux to the HRSA Honor Awards, setting a new standard for those to follow. Appreciate the support you've been able to provide over the years.

Tom Morris

Thanks for sharing your insights with my team and me these past few years. Your voice will be missed at HRSA - literally and figuratively :-). Happy trails!

Brian -

Thank you for being such a good natured champion of HRSA and our team. I don't think we ever had anyone wear a tux to the Honor Awards Ceremony before you joined us. And, I've never seen someone be so genuinely thrilled to get a HRSA t-shirt from the archive bin. We will miss your laugh in our hallways. I wish you all the best!

Tina Cheatham

Brian,

It has been so much fun working with you over the past few years. I will miss your laughter and your impressive knowledge of movie quotes. You showed resiliency in times of crises, which is one of the most important traits of a leader. I wish you nothing but the best in the years to come and I hope we stay in touch.

Wendy Ponton

Brian,

Your energy, humor, and laughter will be truly missed. While I am happy that I was able to answer your M*A*S*H* trivia, my biggest regret is that we weren't able to decorate your office door this year. 😊 I wish you all the best in your next chapter.

Amy McNulty

Just wanted to say thanks, you've really elevated the bar for the HRSA Honor Awards Ceremony. Your enthusiasm and humor will be missed. Wishing you the best on your next adventure.

Brian,
It has been an honor and privilege to work with you. Your optimistic outlook, booming voice and laugh, as well as your passion for HRSA's mission will truly be missed. You have been my loudest cheerleader and for that I am very grateful. Every winter I will look out the windows of HRSA and look for a snow angel while thinking of you with a smile. I will never look at a raider bar the same either. I will miss you but am sure the future never looked brighter for you. :)
Lori Roche

Brian,
It has been a pleasure working with you during your time at HRSA. Your enthusiasm and kind words will be missed, and were particularly appreciated early in the pandemic as you were checking on the deputies. Best of luck in all of your future endeavors!
Torey Mack

Dear Brian, It has been an honor and a joy to work with you over the last two years. Your passion for HRSA's mission, your meticulous attention to detail and pursuit of perfection made working with you so very rewarding. All these traits are eclipsed only by your great disposition and humor. Here you are making a few HHS principals chuckle. Although I won't miss fighting over Lori's Twix bar supply - I will greatly miss working with you. Warm wishes, Sophia

Brian, It's truly been a pleasure working by your side during the last year and a half. We have been through challenging times, but look at all the stories you can share in the future...haha. Love your baseball example during the All Hands earlier this week. That is exactly how I felt when I first moved to DC in late 2000. I hope that we now stay in touch and can look forward to our next steps. Thanks for everything and take care!

Brian Marriott

Sending appreciation one card at at time.
