I have fond memories about the time we connected during your 1st pardon. I remember reading stories about you in the news & feeling both angry by the injustice but inspired by your leadership. Even though we never met prior to that trip, you graciously allowed me into your home & your community to bear witness to your personal liberation. Connecting w/ you guys has been a foundational experience that has nourished me over the years. Wishing you all the best with what comes next.

*Congratulation Bong Many! Your leadership and work has been such an inspiration to me and our SEA community. To not let your past mistakes define you has inspire me to rise above mine to find ways to heal with our community from war, trauma and systemic oppression. You truly deserve this special gift and so much more. Cheers and many blessings to you and yours.
