I've always enjoyed entering our Sunday Services and seeing you by the entry to the Sanctuary.
We all know how much you contribute to the well being of our Church and the effort you put forward to acknowledging each of us.
Thank you for all you do. Merry Christmas to you and your family.

Kimberley,
As I've told you (and many others) many times, you are the one who holds this whole enterprise together. And without you, we could never succeed.
Thank you so much for that - and for your always insightful input to Finance Team. It's most appreciated.

Kimberley- You are like the glue that holds this church body together. I don't know what we would do without your admin skills. I hope that you have a wonderful time off with your family and that you come back rested and rejuvenated.
Becky Christopherson

*KIMBERLEY, What can I say, you are so talented and irreplaceable. We - the church - depend on you to keep us organized. You are much appreciated. I will be so glad when this devil pandemic is over and we can get back in the sanctuary. Virtual hugs, until I can give you a physical one. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. Love,
PEGGY LEVIEN*

*Kimberly, you keep
