Thank you,
MIDDLEBURY STAFF MEMBERS

To Middlebury Staff Members,

Our message to you is simple: thank you. The time and energy that you all put into this institution in any other year—when there isn’t a pandemic going on—is incredible. In the time of COVID-19, though, preparing for on-campus living and learning at our small but dynamic liberal arts college is a massive undertaking.

We understand some of what it took to bring us back safely... the imagining, the planning, the coordinating, the testing, the cleaning and sanitizing, the moving, the shuffling, the hauling, the lifting, the running back and forth up and down and sideways, the maintaining, the tinkering, the building, the groundskeeping, the cooking, the stuffing food into bags, the reviewing, the revising, the holding your breath and hoping for the best. The emails. The meetings. The logistics wizardry. The spirit. We also understand that there’s a whole lot of stuff going on behind the scenes that we’ll never see, never know about, never get the immediate opportunity to thank you for. But amidst all of the anxieties, amidst all of the things-that-could-go-wrong, you’ve managed to bring this campus to life for students in the hopes that our lives here will be more comfortable, more enjoyable, and more memorable. So, thank you.

Truthfully, there are not enough words for us to use to describe our genuine appreciation for the work you do to keep this College up and running, but we hope that this small note will suffice.

With gratitude and care,
SGA & MCAB
ADD YOUR OWN NAMES AND NOTES TO SHOW APPRECIATION FOR THE COLLEGE'S STAFF!
